REDUCTION OF WAGES

Price of Trimming Iron Ore Cargoes Reduced.

TRIMMERS WILL ACCEPT THE CUT.

The Reduction Will Be Made in All the Iron Loading Ports on the Upper Lakes. Child Drank Carbolic Acid—Strike Against a Reduction—Coal Vein Struck. Other Ohio State News.

CLEVELAND, O., April 27.—A committee of the Lake Carriers' association met yesterday and decided to reduce the price for trimming iron ore cargoes at Escanaba from three to two and a half cents per ton. To prevent trouble, the mayor of Escanaba has agreed to take entire charge of the trimmers, hiring and discharging them.

The indications are that a similar reduction will be made in all the iron ore loading ports on the upper lakes and that the trimmers will accept the cut without trouble.

To Examine Fruit Trees.

URBANA, O., April 27.—The trustees of Goshen township have appointed Louis Kingsley and D. W. Rutan a committee to inspect all fruit trees in the township for "black knot," "peach yellow" and "San Jose scab." The committee is empowered to condemn any portion of a tree found to be afflicted, and upon failure of the owner to cut off such affected parts, and destroy them, the committee will have the work done at the owner's expense.

Asked to Accept a Reduction.

BELLAIRE, O., April 27.—The puddlers of the Wheeling iron company, opposite here, have been asked to accept a reduction of 50 cents per ton, to take effect June 1, scaling the price from $4.50 to $4 per ton. No action has yet been taken, and it is not known if the men will accept the reduction.

Child Drank Carbolic Acid.

WINCHESTER, O., April 27.—At Wahlsburg the two-year-old child of George Wahl, a prominent farmer, climbed upon a chair and got hold of a bottle of carbolic acid on the bureau. Before the mother could interfere the child drank a quantity of the drug and will die.

Coal Vein Struck.

WARREN, O., April 27.—McClurg, Cole & Fowler, who have been drilling for coal near the state line, have struck a fine vein, 3 1-2 feet thick, at a depth of 118 feet. Drilling will be continued to see if the vein is general, and if so a large shaft will be sunk.

Jeweler Assigns.

MIDDLETOWN, O., April 27.—John Happersberger, who owns and controls a large jewelry store in this city, has assigned for the benefit of his creditors. Assets, $6,000; liabilities, $9,000. R. B. Edson was appointed assignee.

TEN PEOPLE BADLY INJURED.

A Tremendous Explosion in an Underground Railway Station in London.

LONDON, April 27.—A tremendous explosion occurred on the underground railway at 5:30 o'clock yesterday evening as a train filled with men from the city was making its usual stop at the Aldersgate station. The glass roof of the station was blown out and the platform was strewn with debris. Many of the gaslights in the waiting rooms and on the platform were extinguished, and the station was left in semi-darkness. A general panic ensued.

When comparative quiet had been restored it was found that a first class coach had been completely wrecked and that its occupants were lying about maimed and bleeding. Ten of the injured were found to be in a precarious condition and were removed to hospitals. A number of persons who were standing on the platform were also hurt. Much of the wreckage was hurled across the station.

The cause of the explosion is not known, but it is believed to have been the result of an accumulation of gas which became ignited in some way. Many persons, however, believe that the disaster was not due to accident, but was caused by the explosion of a bomb which had been placed in the station with the intention of wrecking it.

HAVEMEYER DEAD.

The Vice President of the Sugar Trust Passes Away.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Theodore A. Havemeyer, vice president of the greatest sugar refining concern in the world—the sugar trust—died at his home, 244 Madison avenue, early yesterday morning, after an illness of two weeks. His wife and several children were at his bedside when he died, as was his brother, Henry O. Havemeyer.

Mr. Havemeyer's illness was caused by complications arising from stomach troubles. He had just returned a few days ago from a trip to St. Augustine, Aiken and Old Point Comfort.

Mr. Havemeyer was the grandson of the Havemeyer who founded the great sugar industry which he and his brother inherited. Although an American, Havemeyer was really more of a foreigner than a Yankee. He lived most of his years abroad and was decorated by the Austrian emperor with the Order of Leopold.

For 25 years he was consul general of Vienna. The emperor tendered him the place during a visit of Havemeyer to the Austrian capital. At that time sugar affairs were pressing the Havemeyers, but the emperor was so importunate that Havemeyer consented to accept the office. In agreeing to take the title conferred upon him with his decoration—the title of an Austrian baron—Havemeyer gave up whatever political ambition he may have entertained so far as this country is concerned.

Havemeyer was born in New York city in 1839. Theodore, at an early age, began work in his father's refinery and learned all the details of the sugar refining industry. He was admitted into partnership in 1891, and soon afterward opened a refinery of his own, which was merged into the general company when the trust was formed. Mr. Havemeyer has added to his millions money made in the banking business and by wise dealing in real estate. In 1868 he married Miss Emilie de Loosy and has nine children. He lived in a palace on Madison avenue. His brother Henry is president of the sugar trust.

SENATE AND HOUSE.

No Business Transacted in Either Branch of Congress.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The senate chamber had a deserted appearance when the session opened yesterday, many of the senators having gone to New York to attend the Grant ceremonies. Mr. Harris of Tennessee was at his desk for the first time in many weeks, and was congratulated on his recovery from a serious illness.

In the absence of the vice-president and president pro tem., Mr. Frye, Mr. Nelson of Minnesota occupied the chair.

When the Indian bill was reported back from the house an effort was made to send it to conference, but Mr. Gorman objected, saying that it had been understood that no business whatever was to be transacted. Thereupon, at 12:05 p. m., on motion of Mr. Morrill, the senate adjourned to Thursday.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The house held a purely formal session. Many of the members had gone to New York to attend the Grant tomb exercises and under the arrangement made last Friday after the reading of the journal an adjournment was immediately taken until Thursday. The president's message transmitting the report of the Mexican boundary line commission was, however, received before adjournment. Mr. C. W. Stone (Rep., Pa.) presided as speaker pro tem. There were less than 50 members present.

POLICEMAN BURGLAR.

He Confessed to Robbing Two Residences of Thousands of Dollars.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—A queer complication in burglaries developed here yesterday, when Policeman James E. Pierce of the metropolitan force was arrested for robbing two houses on his beat. The sufferers were Mr. Pounce McMillan and Mr. M. Cooke. Both houses are in a fashionable residence section. The families were away at the time and Pierce improved the opportunity to carry away a large amount of glass, clothing, porcelain and other portable valuables.

Detectives searched his house and recovered $1,500 worth of plunder. Pierce, who comes from Vermont, has been on the force four years. He confessed his guilt, but refused to say where all his booty was secreted.

Murder and Suicide.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Isidore Weber shot his 4-year-old daughter Josie, yesterday, killing her, and then killed himself with the same weapon, falling dead beside his child. Weber was a hard drinker. He came from Tennessee, and six years ago married Lena Huebner in Baltimore. He used his wife ill and she was obliged to turn him out of doors. Yesterday he returned and finding Josie about to start for school, offered to accompany her there. Her grandmother consented. As they left the house Weber drew his pistol and committed the murder and suicide.

MYRIADS MUST DIE.

Weyler's Awful Plan of Crushing the Cuban Rebellion.

A SOUL-HARROWING STORY.

Absolute Starvation Is the Fate of More Than a Hundred Thousand Peaceful Inhabitants—Children Dying in the Streets and Babies Found Dead in the Arms of Their Exhausted Mothers.

NEW YORK, April 27.—A special to The World from Havana says: Private letters from the interior report wholesale starvation. Some of the cases are especially heartrending. Children are dying in the streets of Matanzas and babies have been found dead in the arms of their exhausted mothers. Your correspondent has been through the province of Pinar del Rio and has seen whole villages of living skeletons, in bark huts, praying for death to release them from their suffering.

General Weyler is seizing the cattle of the citizens for the use of the troops in Santa Clara. Rafael Rubio, an American citizen, lost 21 head of cattle in that way. When he complained to the Spanish authorities and demanded pay for them, he was told that he was impudent to ask Spain to pay for what the insurgents took with impunity.

A guerrilla squad, raised, armed and mounted by Spanish cattle-owners of Sancti Spiritus, went out and drove in 200 head of cattle to be slaughtered for the benefit of the needy people of the city, but Weyler ordered all the meat sent to Manzanillo for the soldiers.

The effect of concentrating the country people in fortified towns is seen in all its awfulness in Las Villas, as Cubans call Santa Clara province.

It means "the towns," Santa Clara having many cities. Five of the cities are of large population. Santa Clara is in the center, Cienfuegos and Sancti Spiritus on the south and Sagua la Grande and Remedios on the north. There were 350,000 people living in the five districts, of which these five cities are the capitals.

Of this population 150,000 lived outside of the cities and villages. All these have been compelled to leave their farms and move into the cities and fortified towns. In some of the latter the concentrated outnumbers the original population. They have no money and if they had there is not food enough to supply all who need it.

Bark huts have been built in low lying places, and they are crowded with poverty-stricken refugees. They are half naked, sick from exposure and dying of hunger. They are peaceful, hard-working people. On their farms they would be not only self-supporting, but able to supply plenty of vegetables, eggs, meat and fruit to the starving people of the cities. Under Weyler's policy of concentration the whole 350,000 persons are suffering and 150,000 are doomed to die for lack of food, which they could easily obtain if allowed to work. This policy, as a war measure, is worse than useless from the Spanish standpoint, for it has forced hundreds of men who would have remained at work on their farms to join the rebels rather than be forced to see their families starve in the cities and towns.

In some of the smaller places in Las Villas the overcrowding is terrible. Sitiaito, before the order was given, had 100 people. It now contains 1,000, including soldiers. The farmers ordered in have built 250 huts and are slowly dying off. There are a dozen places like this in the province.

Weyler has had all the cattle killed in the fields by the guerrillas and left to rot. No meat can be brought in except for the troops.

Almost all of the sugar centrals are points for concentration. The owners are not allowed to grind, but they must protect their property. They build forts and the soldiers are put in them. This makes a fortified point, and the farmers round about move in. They stand a chance of getting food now and then, for the planter pities them, but they are worse off than those in regular towns, for not a drop of medicine can be carried to them. Not a druggist dare sell any drugs or fill a prescription to be taken outside the regular fortified towns. If a grain of quinine for a suffering soul is given it means death to the sender if caught.

The insurgents in arms are much better off than the concentrated pacificos. They kill a beef in the fields when they choose, but when they have taken what they need, they generally send word to the owner and they come and get the rest of it, or they try to get it to the starving people around the centrals. The wanton destruction of cattle by the Spaniards has exasperated the ranchmen, many of whom are Spanish and were hitherto loyal.

TO INVESTIGATE THE RUIS CASE.

George E. Baldwin Will Go to Havana as Legal Adviser.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The announcement is made at the White House that George E. Baldwin of Canton, O., will go to Havana as legal adviser of Consul Lee, to take charge of the investigation into the alleged butchery of Dr. Ruiz. His selection was warmly recommended by Judge Day, heretofore chosen for the duty, but compelled to remain here as assistant secretary of state. Mr. Baldwin's long intimacy with the president is expected to make his observations while in Cuba as valuable to the administration as those of Judge Day could have been.

It will be necessary for Mr. Baldwin to leave for Havana as soon as possible, for it is already two months since Ruiz died, and further delay might destroy the usefulness of the investigation.

Mr. Baldwin's arrival here is looked for on Thursday. When he shall return from Cuba it is the general impression that Lee will accompany him and not return to Havana again. Lee's resignation has been in the hands of Secretary Sherman since March 5. Judge Day's predecessor in the state department, Assistant Secretary Rockhill, has been offered the Havana post, but hesitates to accept it, preferring a position in China or Egypt.

CROPS IN INDIANA.

Reports on the Outlook for Scott, Wayne and Knox Counties.

SCOTTSBURG, Ind., April 27.—Owing to the late spring and extreme wet weather, all farm produce is nearly three weeks behind in southern Indiana. Fruit is especially slow in developing, being in all stages of bloom. Last year at this time cherries were the size of peas, and other fruit trees were also laden with green fruit. Trees were a mass of green foliage, while now the leaves are just beginning to come out.

Fruit growers on the Knobs say that the trees were not injured by last Monday night's freeze nearly so much as was supposed. Peach trees seem to have withstood the cold with little, if any, damage, and an average crop is expected.

Scarcely any gardening has been done and no ground has been broken for corn by farmers.

What little wheat that will be left for harvest is doing well. The acreage is small and hundreds of acres all over the county will be plowed up and planted in corn. There will be an exceptionally large amount of the latter raised this year. Much of the ground otherwise given to wheat is planted in clover, of which the farmers are raising more each year. Much grass is also being planted, and the hay crop will be heavy.

Generally speaking, this has been a bad spring for all cereal produce, and being so late, the usual summer drought will be likely to do considerable damage.

Average Prospects.

RICHMOND, Ind., April 27.—Prospects are for average crops of all kinds in this county, according to reports of the farmers. Corn planting has been delayed by the weather during the early part of this month, but much ground has been broken during the past week. Wheat fields in most localities look fairly well. There will be many acres of oats grown this season also. Other crops, including fruits, will give an average yield.

A New Wheat Pest.

VINCENNES, Ind., April 27.—A new wheat pest has been discovered that bids fair to do great damage to the crop of 1897. It is a very small worm, which does its deadly work by boring holes in the roots of the plant. It is doing considerable damage to the wheat in many localities in southern Indiana and Illinois. Its appearance is earlier than the chinch bug or Hessian fly, and it does its destructive work more thoroughly than either.

STATESMAN, REST.

The Burial of Congressman William S. Holman at His Old Home.

LAWRENCEBURG, Ind., April 27.—William S. Holman, congressman from this district, was buried at Aurora Sunday from the historic Holman homestead on the river, six miles below here. Many of the congressman's old friends from this city attended the funeral and paid a last tribute to the dead statesman.

The funeral train was met at Aurora by a delegation of citizens, who received the congressional committee in charge of the remains. The funeral service was simple. The Rev. S. E. Davies, pastor of the First Baptist church of Aurora, conducted the short services.

Telephone Exchange Burned Out.

WABASH, Ind., April 27.—Fire of unknown origin broke out in the Home Telephone Exchange of this city yesterday. The switchboard was destroyed and the connections were all burned off. It will be several days before the 200 subscribers on the lines are again supplied with service.

Falls From a Load of Hay.

VALPARAISO, Ind., April 27.—John Brough, a prominent farmer of Hebron, while unloading a load of hay yesterday fell backward, breaking two ribs and receiving other internal injuries. He is 75 years old, and will probably die.

Justin McCarthy Ill.

LONDON, April 27.—Right Hon. Justin McCarthy, member of parliament for the north division of Longford, and formerly the leader of the Irish nationalist party, has been suffering for a week past, his sickness being supposed to be dysentery, but he had so recovered yesterday as to be able to take a drive. His family is not at all alarmed at the condition of his health.

Went for His Health But Died.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., April 27.—Mr. Augustus M. Friedlander, the portrait painter of New York, died suddenly in this city of consumption. He came to Colorado about two months ago on the advice of his physician in New York, and has engaged in painting portraits of prominent Colorado Springs and Denver residents.

The Florida Contest.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 27.—The ballot for United States senator yesterday resulted as follows: Call, 24; Chipley, 15; Raney, 10; Hocker, 8; Burford, 2; Wolf, 1; Mallory, 1; Darby 1. Total vote, 61.

MARCHING ON TO VOLO

The Turks Are Within One Hour of the City.

GREEK TROOPS ALL WITHDRAWN

At the Same Time the Greek Troops Have Occupied All the Positions Around Pentepigadia—Colonel Manos Asks For Reinforcements and Two Thousand Men Have Been Sent—Latest War News.

ATHENS, April 27.—A telegram received here states that the Turks are within an hour's march of Volo. The Greek troops have been withdrawn from the town and are taking the wounded from the hospitals.

The latest dispatches here show that the Greeks have occupied all the positions around Pentepigadia. Colonel Manos has asked for reinforcements in order to insure his advance to Janina. Colonel Dairaktaris has therefore started with 2,000 men to assist him. The report that Colonel Manos has been ordered to retire is unfounded.

The Proia, in a special edition, announces that General Smolenski has been appointed chief of staff of the army in Thessaly, with power to choose the members of his staff. General Smolenski is 45 years of age and very popular with the troops.

It is reported here that Trikkala has been evacuated and that the Turks are constructing temporary forts at Larissa.

The disposition of Greek soldiers of the defense of Pharsalas has been carefully studied by the general staff and the minister for war, and orders have been given for the occupation of the heights at Velegitino and Pilaslepe by independent brigades.

It is stated that Admiral Stamatellos will be appointed to the chief command of the eastern squadron.

TURKISH ADVICES.

The Turkish Troops Well Received by the Inhabitants of Larissa.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 27.—It is officially declared here that the Greeks, before evacuating Larissa, released all persons confined in the local jails and that it was the latter who destroyed and pillaged the houses. According to the same statement the Turkish troops were received with enthusiasm by such inhabitants as remained in the town.

Mustapha Nalik Bey has been constituted commandant of the town. He has taken possession of the bank with the money it contains. The town will be held by a small garrison. Military operations in this quarter are for the time concluded. The cautious policy of Edhem Pasha is fully justified, and he deserves every congratulation as a skillful and humane general.

The porte has announced that Greeks in the service of the consulates, hospitals, foreign missions and postoffices may remain in Turkey, but that all others must leave the country.

War Vessels Wanted.

CANEA, April 27.—The French cruiser Tronde and the Italian warship Sardegna have hurriedly sailed from Cretan waters for the Gulf of Salonica.

Osman Pasha Ready to Take Command. SALONICA, April 27.—Osman Pasha has left for Ellassona to take command of the Turkish army.

ANOTHER CREAK.

More Land Being Inundated Along the Lower Mississippi River.

MEMPHIS, April 27.—Last night a second break occurred in the levee at Promised Land at a point about 500 feet above the recent break there. The strip of levee between the two breaks gave way and there exists a monster crevasse a thousand feet in width, through which the water is rushing to the lowlands in great volume. Many of the levees in the Louisiana district are yet in a critical condition, and the work of strengthening and watching the weak places is being carried on both day and night.

The Tensas river is rising rapidly as a result of the breaks at Bigg's and Reed's levees, and a general overflow from this stream is looked for. The Black river is rising, and the backwaters from the Bigg's crevasse is spreading over a large area.

Throughout the Mississippi delta the backwater is stationary, but a speedy decline is predicted. The river at Memphis and Cairo is falling.

Playing a Waiting Game.

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 27.—Only a formal ballot, with one vote for each candidate, was taken in the senatorial race yesterday. The agreement was reached because of numerous pairs that do not expire till Wednesday.

Steve O'Donnell Not In It.

PHILADELPHIA, April 27.—Peter Maher again demonstrated his ability to whip Steve O'Donnell, by practically knocking him out in the sixth round of their bout at the arena of the Quaker City Athletic club last night.

CONGRESSMAN PUGH's plan of selecting fourth-class postmasters bids fair to involve him in whole heaps of trouble. It was tried in Lewis County Saturday, and now there's "much dissatisfaction."

"EXCLUSIVELY" is a great word with the editor of the Ledger, but many things he writes down as appearing "exclusively" in his paper are not so "exclusively" exclusive as he imagines. Put on your specs, Br'er Davis.

George Gould's Easter Offering.

All Saints' Episcopal Church at Lakewood, of which Rev. D. L. Schwartz is rector, received a gift of a check for $1,000 from George Gould this morning. It was found in one of the small envelopes supplied by the church when the morning collection was counted at the close of the service. For some time there has been a heavy mortgage on the rectory, and during Lent earnest appeals for financial aid have been made. The collection at this morning's service was devoted to that end, and in addition to Mr. Gould's liberal contribution over $500 was raised.

Mr. Gould and his family have always attended the church and have been prominently identified with the entertainments in connection therewith.—Lakewood dispatch to the New York Times.

The coming of prosperity, the show of which McKinley is the "advance agent," is eagerly looked for by all. If it does not arrive soon the dates should be promptly cancelled, as it is several months behind the time for which it was announced.

ORANGEBURG.

The usual services of the C. E. Society of the Christian Church here were varied on the eve of Easter Sunday by a song service which was pronounced both pleasing and appropriate by all present. The thanks of the society are due Mrs. A. C. Coryell, Mrs. W. H. Hord, Miss Georgia Roe, Rev. Watkins and Richard Roe for efficient aid rendered on the occasion. As in the past year several prominent members of the church have been called home, a part of the service was dedicated to their memory in an "Easter Tribute," prepared by Miss Maybugh. The same was not written for publication, but at the request of friends of the departed, we give it below:

Again, we have welcomed the spring time,
Its promise of bud and of bloom,
With echo of bird song through woodlands
And the voices of waters in tune;
All nature responds to the music
That floats through the shimmering air,
And the earth is all golden with sunshine,
And gay with a blossoming rare;
But for us, who have gathered
To welcome this bright Easter day,
The sunlight has paled in its beauty—
A shadow has darkened our way:For since we last gathered here singing
The praises of earth's risen Lord
So many have passed through the portals
To dwell in the garden of God;
Have slipped down the valley of silence
Where mortal feet never may tread,
Have waked to the glory of heaven,
Which mortal eyes never have read.When lilacs of Easter were blooming in beauty,
One short year ago;
Our joyous bells among us
Were called from his labor below.
So earnest, God fearing and helpful
He lived in his work for the Lord,
But the Master has said "Come up higher,
Where awaiteth my servant's reward."When the suns of the summer
Glowed on the fields of July,
And the golden grains fell,
As the reapers passed by;
Another, a friend we have known,
From our earliest days;
Beloved in Christ's kingdom,
Who walked in his ways,
Passed upward from earth to heaven,
To the land of the blest,
Another in Israel
Is called to her rest.When the silvery sword of the Frost
Smote the earth as with merciless hand,
And the haze of an Indian summer,
Lay soft o'er the beautiful land;
Again, to our midst, came the reaper,
Who garnered the harvest of God,
And one growing old in his service,
Who long in his vineyard has trod,
Crossed over the dark rolling river,
To land on eternity's shore;
The sword has ended his labor,
For him, earth's toils are all o'er.Amid wild, wailing winds,
And the sobbing of rain;
When the elements o'er
Seemed akin to our pain
The messenger called her,
And "Maidee" went home;
A white-souled evangelist
In fairer fields to roam,
And while we, in our blindness,
Were crying "She's gone,"
The angels were singing in chorals,
"She has come, she has come!"And then, in the prime of his manhood,
When life full of promise seemed bright,
Once more has the death angel beckoned,
Another soul passed into light;
Sweet out through the chill and the darkness,
"Mid the wild winters pitiless reign,
Another home lonely and broken,
Another heart sobbing in pain.Again, when the birds of the spring time,
Were bursting to beautiful life,
Our young brother "Willie" passed upward,
In freedom from earth's weary strife;
And again, far away to the southland
Where the roses of Texas hill rise,
Another soul soaring in beauty,
To a home far beyond starry skies;
And as he lay dying he whispered
"Sweet Time, hurry me on."
It may be that Jesus was waiting,
"Thou faithful one, welcome, well done."And we, who stand yet in the shadow
Nor see beyond earth's yawning grave,
Have only the promise of Jesus,
To comfort, to heal and to save.
We know not where lies this fair heaven,
Which sorrows of earth never dim,
But we pray that the friends who have left us,
Are resting in glory with Him.And we, who are learning life's lessons,
Know how brief is the time of its span,
Should follow the footsteps of Jesus,
In doing the good that we can.
Be tenderer still to the living,
Deal gently with souls gone astray,
And, bearing the burden of others,
We shall lighten our own on the way.
And now, we would pray thee, O Father,
To lean from thy mansions above;
To perfect our works in thy greatness,
And strengthen our faith in thy love.
And then, when our feet touch the river,
That borders the heavenly shore,
Wilt thou reach down thy strong arm of mercy,
And bear us in peace safely o'er.
Where blossoms of Easter blow always,
And the hills of eternity rise;
Where no moon and no sunlight are needed,
To brighten the glory of skies!
And there, may we know the departed—
The friends who have gone from us here,
May they stand on the shore to await us,
And joyfully welcome us there.

A card on the outside of office doors says: "Gone to lunch. Be back in ten minutes." And the man will be there on time. That is, for some weeks, or even months, he will. Then he will be at home occasionally for a day. He'll tell you he had a headache—a turn of cholera morbus, or maybe he'll say he had a lump in his stomach and felt too miserable to move. The lump was probably two or three ten-minute lunches condensed.

The man who "bolts" his lunches will find Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best friend he ever met.

There is no case of biliousness, constipation, indigestion, "heart-burn" or any of the rest of the night-mare breeding brood, that these little "Pellets" will not cure. They cure permanently. Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS, It has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to remove from our midst Lucy Lee Stewart, our sister and co-worker in the Sabbath school; be it

Resolved, That in the death of our sister, Mitchell's Chapel Sabbath school has lost a faithful scholar and the church a most loving Christian. Resolved, That the members of the Sabbath school tenderly sympathize with her sorrowing relatives and friends, hoping her noble Christian life, which is worthy of emulation, may be followed by many who have been privileged to know her.

Resolved, That while our hearts have been made sad by this bereavement, we sorrow not as those who have no hope, for "some sweet day" we shall meet where partings are no more. May we all receive that blessed assurance "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joys prepared for thee." Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Sabbath school and published in the daily papers, and a copy of same be sent to the family of the deceased.

GRANT'S SCHOOL DAYS

At the Old Maysville Seminary Recalled by Men Who Were His Fellow-Students.

[Enquirer.]

The forthcoming ceremonies attendant upon the dedication of the Grant mausoleum at New York has aroused unusual interest in various reminiscences in this section, where the boyhood days of the great commander were spent. Quite a number of the most prominent men in Cincinnati at one time attended the Maysville Seminary, from which Grant graduated and proceeded to West Point. A. B. Voorheis, of Voorheis, Miller & Co., wholesale clothiers, at Third and Walnut streets, attended the school and graduated from it in 1858.

"Of course, at that time," said he, "Grant was very little talked about, but as soon as he became famous as a General, his old teacher, as well as ours, Prof. Richeson, never tired talking about the peculiarities of his now great pupil. He used to entertain the young people with descriptions of his peculiarities, especially his marvelous modesty and great love for mathematics. Prof. Richeson pronounced him the finest mathematician he had ever met."

About the only person hereabouts who really remembers Grant as a student at the Maysville Seminary is E. M. Richeson, a brother of the late Prof. Richeson, now over seventy years of age and blind. He was in the city Saturday, and talked quite freely about the great warrior. He remembered the young man very well, although having never renewed the friendship formed so many years ago. He was like a great many other school-boys who attended high school in a strange city—he had been raised in a small country village. Grant was exceedingly modest, and not at all forward in any games or school exercises except in mathematics. He was very strong on that subject and led the school.

"The most notable fact in connection with the General," said he, "was that he and I were always opposed to each other in the debates. We had a society called the 'Kappa Gamma Chi,' and had some very exciting debates among the members. The practice was to name a leader for each side, and they in turn would select their sides. I remember distinctly that Grant was always the last one on his side, and I held the same position on mine. He was not much of an orator, but what he did say was very much to the point. There are very few people in Point Pleasant or that country now who were associated with General Grant in his early days, and still the country all around Point Pleasant has many landmarks that are very intimately associated with the General's youth. Anybody who rides along the C. and O. can see some of these buildings from Mentor, Ky., which is directly opposite his birthplace. I should like very well once more to visit the dear old spot, but the loss of my eyesight prevents it."

OFFICE VACATED.

Judge Hutchins Takes Action in the Case of John T. Bramel, Justice of the Peace.

Proof was heard in the County Court Monday before Judge Hutchins that 'Squire John T. Bramel, Justice of the Peace in District No. 1, had left the county, and was not expected to return, and the court decided that said office was vacant.

Under the law it devolves upon the County Judge to appoint some one to fill the vacancy, until the next regular election, November, 1897. Judge Hutchins has not yet made the appointment but will do so in a few days.

As heretofore stated, 'Squire Bramel left Maysville Tuesday, April 13th, and but little was known of his whereabouts since then until the last day or two when a letter was received by his family. It was dated at Chicago, and he wrote that he would not be back until he got "that $80,000." His family know of no money that is coming to him, and can not account for such statements.

Merrill, Baldwinville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it and never knew it to fail and would rather have it than any doctor, because it always cures. Mrs. Hemming, 222 E. 25th St., Chicago, always keeps it at hand and has no fear of croup, because it instantly relieves. Free trial bottles at J. James Wood's drug store.

I spent hundreds of dollars with doctors and for medicine, but everything failed until I found this wonderful remedy." For sale at Chenoweth's drug store.

And Deserved More, Did William Morgan For Brutally Assaulting Policeman Thompson.

William Morgan, who is said to be a Cincinnati tough, was in the Police Court Monday, charged with assaulting Policeman R. P. Thompson.

Judge Wadsworth gave Morgan the limit, a fine of $100 and fifty days in jail.

The assault was a brutal one. The officer had arrested Morgan and two others on Wall street Saturday night, and with the assistance of some parties was taking them to jail. Morgan, who was walking behind the officer, suddenly picked up a big rock and dealt Thompson a severe blow on the head, inflicting a very painful wound. Fortunately the officer's injuries are not serious.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The "Old Shanties" Have All Disappeared, and Each District Now Has a Substantial House.

The condition in which the Superintendent found the schools while making his annual visit during fall was highly encouraging. Each district is now supplied with a substantial, comfortable school house and the old shanties in which the poor teachers and scholars were housed (7) have disappeared.

New, modern style furniture, maps, charts, globes, &c., are now to be seen in almost all the school houses. Good drinking water close at hand has been provided, thereby saving long journeys by scholars in pairs in search of the life sustaining fluid, possibly in some cases resulting in disappointment to the volunteer water carriers, who generously braved heat or cold to fetch a bucket about half-filled, when they reached the school house, with tepid water; and last but not least well qualified teachers.

Millwood school district is under the control of an excellent Board of Trustees who have done their best for the school property, and have everything in good shape; they are: Selden Bramel, Ed. Bullock and Robert Jolly. Miss Annie T. Ford is and has been the teacher for this district for past two or three terms. This school is unusually well attended because she makes the school attractive to the children. Her pupils give evidence of careful training. Her school is admirably managed, as she is possessed of executive ability of a high order.

HELENA SCHOOL DISTRICT, No. 24.

This school is worthy of high commendation. The trustees are: Thomas Collins, John McCarty and C. H. Darnall and they have been faithful and efficient. The school house consists of two comfortable rooms and is kept in first class condition. The principal is Mr. E. Reganastine and the assistant Miss Mary Thornton. These teachers are doing excellent work and the trustees and patrons are I believe thoroughly satisfied.

I find nearly all the teachers well versed in the latest methods and this is cause for thankfulness from all who are interested in the advancement of educational methods. These have improved amazingly in the last quarter of a century. How would such teaching as was customary in years passed as the following agree with the pupils of the present day? In our old arithmetic in which we were instructed (taught) was the following: "To reduce a fraction of one denomination to the fraction of another, but less, retaining the same value." Answer, multiply the given numerator by the parts of the denominators between it and that denomination you would reduce the fraction to, for a new numerator and place it over the given denominator." I presume we worked the sum but if we did it was certainly not through or by means of this rule. The most enlightened teachers of the present day use the inductive as preceding the deductive method. Making the rules is induction, applying them to the solution of problems is deduction. Socrates taught by these methods 500 years before Christ and we can not do better than to follow him now. It is not well to cast old things aside simply because they are old. I hope to have opportunity to say more upon this subject ere long, but I have taken up enough of your valuable paper.

Don't Put Coin in Your Mouth.

[Exchange.]

It is possible to catch a whole string of diseases through holding money in the mouth. A scientist says that a man who carelessly puts a penny in his mouth subjects himself to greater danger than if he were exposed to the bitterest weather without clothing. Scientists who have been testing coins find that, as a rule, the germs that find lodgment on their faces are powerless to harm human beings unless they are able to penetrate the skin and get into the blood; but in cases of consumption and one or two other of the more deadly maladies, the organisms may be given a foothold by being inhaled into the lungs. In cold weather there are frequent cracks and small abrasions on people's lips, and there, of all places, the germs find the best opportunity to reach the blood. Shopkeepers who are in the habit of handling coppers should be careful to wear gloves if their hands are cut or scratched.

GRANT'S TOMB.

Everything in Readiness For the Dedication of the Massive Structure.

New York, April 27.—For the past 24 hours soldiers of the regular army and national guard have marched through the handsomely decorated streets of New York from the railroad stations and ferry landings to their quarters. Every train has brought notable people to the city, among the arrivals being President McKinley, Vice President Hobart, the cabinet officers, members of the diplomatic corps, senators, representatives and governors of states.

GRANT'S TOMB, NEW YORK.

Late yesterday evening the last of the foreign warships, the Italian cruiser Dogali, steamed into port.

Everything is ready for the dedication of the massive tomb in Riverside Park, in which rests the remains of America's great soldier, Ulysses S. Grant. Weeks ago it was estimated that 1,000,000 persons would come to New York to witness the parade and ceremonies of dedication of the tomb and that number may be exceeded.

More people will behold today's pageant than will see the queen's show in London next month, for the line of march here stretches for several miles and much of the route is alongside the parks and vacant lots, upon which have been built great stands with cushioned seats, canvass roofs and restaurants, for the spectators are expected to occupy their places for several hours, from the time President McKinley's carriage passes until the last of the 55,000 men goes by.

In making up the parade the grand marshal, General Grenville M. Dodge, has excluded many civic bodies which asked for places and has given room to the regular militia of the several states and the Grand Army and kindred organizations. The white squadron lies in the North river opposite the tomb, and the foreign war vessels are anchored below.

The exercises of the day will be carried out precisely as arranged weeks ago. The president and other distinguished guests will leave the Fifth Avenue hotel and, escorted by a squadron of cavalry, proceed to the tomb, where a stand in the open air has been set apart for them.

The exercises at the tomb will consist of prayer, singing by a great choir and speeches.

In the evening the president and the other guests of the city, including the officers of the warships in port, will be entertained at receptions. The massive mausoleum in Riverside Park was completed only a few days ago, and has been handsomely decorated with flowers and bunting.

Run Down by a Freight Train.

BRAZIL, Ind., April 27.—William Lutz, a pensioner, 74 years old, was killed on the Otter Creek branch of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railroad in this city yesterday. He was walking along the right-of-way when a freight train approached. It had been broken in two, and after the first section passed he stepped upon the track. The second section ground his body into an unrecognizable mass. The dead man was identified by means of his watch.

Rear Admiral Mende Batcher.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The condition of Rear Admiral Mende, retired is somewhat improved. His pulse is firmer, and he appears brighter than at any time since his bad spell of Sunday.

THE NATURAL WAY

To Cure Inflammation.

Inflammation is the sustaining element of the great majority of our physical ills; allay this inflammation, and the pain ceases, the flesh, muscles and tendons resume their normal condition and the violence of the attack is at an end.

It follows, then, that the first step in a successful assault upon disease is to destroy any existing inflammation, and with it the pain. This accomplished, the patient is at ease.

This is the natural mode of procedure, and kindly Nature has furnished the means to that end in certain roots, barks and herbs, which, in their due proportion, are constituent parts of Lightning Hot Drops, the greatest pain panacea ever known to medical science.

Freely applied to a cut, bruise, burn, scald, or flesh-wound of any nature, Lightning Hot Drops will absolutely kill the pain, prevent all inflammation and quickly heal the lacerated flesh. As an instance, what is more painful or distressing than a mashed finger, with the nail torn loose? In such a case, Lightning Hot Drops gives complete and immediate ease from pain. It will smart and burn for a few minutes when first applied to fresh cuts, sores, etc., but a few applications will take all the soreness out and heal the cut or sore. The 50c size contains 2 1/2 times as much as the 25c size. Lightning Hot Drops is prepared by Herb Medicine Co., Springfield, O., and no honest druggist will offer you anything else.
